"NIGHT RIDERS" RAID

Overpowered Police and Prevented Alarm To Be Given.

THREE MEN WERE WOUNDED

Raiders Used Dynamite and Set Fire to and Burned Warehouses and Contents—Troops Now on Guard at Hopkinsville.

Russellville, Ky., Jan. 4.—Night riders, one hundred strong, swooped down in Russellville, Logan county, early Friday morning and after overpowering the three policemen and preventing against the giving of an alarm, dynamited and burned the two independent tobacco concerns in the city and several other establishments and rode away out the Hopkinsville and Clarksville pike.

Three men were wounded and the telephone girls and police held prisoners for nearly three hours.

The following buildings were destroyed:

Frank G. Wake, tobacco warehouse, building and contents. Loss, $15,000. American Snuff Company, factory and contents, loss, $15,000; Roberts and Brown Planing Mill; loss, $12,000. Alfred Underwood, grocery, loss, $7,000; King and Proctor, stable; Joshua Knowles, cottage.

The wounded persons are: Dr. Charles M. Roberts, of Evansville, Ind.; J. R. McLean, Russellville; J. H. Moseley, Russellville.

Captain R. L. Bruce, the chief of police, as soon as he heard the noises, hastened to the fire tower, where he attempted to sound the alarm, but was overpowered by four of the masked riders.

Two merchants, J. R. McLean, proprietor of a grocery store, and J. Henry Moseley, proprietor of a drygoods store, did not hurry into their homes as fast as the night riders desired and were shot.

The most seriously injured is Dr. Charles M. Roberts, a guest at the Forst house, who was wounded about the head and face by a charge of buckshot. Dr. Roberts was shot as the night riders were leaving town. He heard the disturbance and thinking that the raiders had departed, ran out to see what had happened. He came face to face with the group of the departing mob and as he started to run was shot.

It is said that the mob came to Russellville from the direction of Cave Springs, near where the members are said to have had their rendezvous. This is the third raid which has been made by night riders in Western Kentucky and comes in the face of the announcement by the governor that disorder must cease. At this time a court is in progress at Hopkinsville investigating a similar raid which was made on that city several weeks ago.

Troops are now on guard in Hopkinsville.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 4.—A Hopkinsville, Ky., dispatch says: State Fire Marshal Mott Ayres has left for Russellville, Ky., to investigate the night riders' raid upon that place early Friday morning. Colonel Ayres says he has a man there who will report to him as soon as he arrives. He says if conditions warrant he will begin an investigation at once, but cannot tell just whether he will take up the work or leave it for his successor, Cicero Barnett. Adjutant General P. P. Johnston has left for Frankfort.

Insurance Company Re-instated.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 4.—Secretary of State Julian has announced that the Western Life Insurance Company in this state. The company was suspended by the Alabama commission some time ago, had been re-instated in this state. The company was suspended for refusal to allow an actuary appointed by the state commission to examine its books. The company has consented to this examination, and Mr. Julian will leave in a few days for Kansas City to conduct the

OFFICIALS NOT SURPRISED.

Macon, Dublin and Savannah Railroad May Be Involved.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 4.—There is a strong possibility of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad figuring prominently in the receivership of the Seaboard Air Line. General Manager Wright and Freight and Passenger Agent Streyer have been in Washington for several days, and it is believed here that they had some knowledge of a request for receivers for the Seaboard Air Line. A large block of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah stock is owned by the Seaboard, and for this reason it is thought that the former road will be involved with the latter. Some time during last year the Seaboard Air Line gained partial, if not complete, control of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah, and the instructions of President W. A. Harris to the Seaboard officials to visit points along the Macon, Dublin and Savannah were carried out.

The news of the application for receivers for the Seaboard did not cause any surprise to the officials of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad.

Troubles Will Affect Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 4.—The effect of the receivership for the Seaboard Air Line will be far-reaching in Baltimore, where the securities of the company are more largely dealt in and held than in any other trading center, not even exceeding New York. The bond issues placed on the property since it has been merged into one system aggregate $33,765,000, of which amount it is estimated nearly $5,000,000 is held here.

Is Chief Executive For Receivers.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 4.—W. A. Garret, president of the Seaboard Air Line railway, which was Thursday placed in the hands of S Davies Warfield and R. Lancaster Williams, as receivers, has been appointed "chief executive officer for the receivers," and the first general notices by the receivers was made public in this city Friday.

ALLOWED TO TAKE OFF TRAINS.

Alabama Railroad Commission Agrees to Allow Reduction of Service.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 4.—The railroad commission has agreed to a limited reduction of the local passenger train service on the Southern railway, and after a meeting wired J. S. B. Thompson, assistant to President Finley, at Atlanta, as follows:

"The commission approves schedules suggested in your letter except as to changes in Wilton and Rome and Akron branch schedules. Before approving changed suggested for this service would want further information. The suggested changes in schedules between Birmingham and Atlanta are approved, provided trains performing this service should not wait on connections at Birmingham or Atlanta longer than one hour, and shall maintain with reasonable regularity their published schedules."

This provides that 21 and 22, between Birmingham and Anniston will be taken off Sunday; that one train between Birmingham and Columbus, Miss., will be discontinued, the work to be done by the extension of the Corona accommodation materially increasing the service, and some other minor changes to be made.

Berlin Police Make a Raid.

Berlin, Jan., 4.—The police of this city raided a house in the suburb of Charlottsburg and arrested seventeen members of the central committee of the Russian workingmen's party. The arrests were made under the Prussian law which forbids meetings of secret societies, and presumably was a result of information supplied by Russian political agents.

No Inquest Necessary.

Atlanta, Jan. 4.—Coroner Thompson, after a consultation with the county attorney, decided that under the evidence of the case an inquest over the body of Marian Meffendorf, sometimes known as Marian Evans and Marian Hall, was not necessary. This was her second attempt at suicide. The woman was twenty-four years of age and had almost perfect

HE SMASHED PRINCE

Anna Gould's Ex-Husband Also Spat In Cousin's Face.

DeSAGAN'S FACE IS BLOODIED

After Leaving Church Men Clinched. Family Believe Prince de Sagan is Trying to Mary Miss Anna Gould, of New York.

Paris, Jan. 4.—Count Boni de Castellane, from whom his wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, was recently divorced, and Prince Helie de Sagan, who on several occasions was reported to be engaged to Mme. Gould, had a personal encounter at the church of St. Pierre de Chaillot while a service to the memory of the Lady Stanley Errington, a relative of both men, who died lately in England, was in progress.

Beginning inside the church, where Count Boni says the prince insulted both him and the sacred edifice, the encounter was resumed at the doorway, where Count Boni, followed by his brother, Count Jean de Castellane, overtook the prince. Count Boni spat in his cousin's face.

Then came the clash of canes, followed by a rough and tumble fight on the pavement, which ended in the gutter, where the men were finally separated by a big butcher. Count Boni at the moment of intervention, was holding down the well-nigh insensible prince, while Jean, according to eye-witnesses, was administering to him a severe kicking.

Boni Telling Why He Spat.

When the police arrived, the butcher was holding the two principals in the fight, who were covered with mud. The prince was bleeding profusely from a wound in the right temple, where he had been hit by Count Boni's heavy stick. The police invited the two to the station house, and this, after some disputing, they agreed to do. All three of them, bespattered with mu, accompanied the police, and followed by several thousand persons, they marched off to the station, where they made "explanations."

A "process verbale" having been written out, according to the French code, the three men signed it, and then were released. The case now will go before the public prosecutor.

Not Engaged to Anna Gould.

The prince said emphatically that he was not engaged to Madame Gould. He said he would willingly fight a duel if there was honorable provocation, incidentally mentioning his proficiency as a swordsman, but, under the circumstances, he intended to allow the law to take its course.

While there had been an estrangement between him and Count Boni, he said, he had no reason to anticipate the attack.

The affair has created a great sensation in Paris on account of the notoriety and high family connection of the parties concerned, and especially Count Boni's prominence as an anti-republican and an opponent of the government's church policy.

Prince Helie de Sagan is a grandson of the famous duke who for years set the fashion in Paris, and concerning whom hundred droll stories have been told. He is a brother of the Duke de Dino, and has figured extensively in public gossip in Paris. A few years ago he attained notoriety by slapping Maitre Barbour during the trial of a damage suit brought by a prominent society leader, because it was publicly asserted that the painting, "nude woman in a mask," exhibited at the salon, was her portrait.

According to current gossip in Paris Count Boni and the entire Castellane family are now convinced that Prince Helie de Sagan, despite the opposition of the Gould family, is seeking to marry Mme. Gould. It is stated that it was only recently that Count Boni abandoned hope of reconciliation with his former wife.

HARVIE JORDAN CALLS MEETING

National Executive Committee of S. C. A. Will Convene in Dallas.

Atlanta, Jan. 4.—President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, has issued a call for the meeting of the national executive committee to be held at Dallas, Tex., on February 19, next.

The annual convention of the association also will be held at Dallas, Tex., February 19 and 20. The regular annual meeting of the various state divisions of the association wil be called to meet at their respective state capitols throughout the cotton belt on Wednesday, February 5.

The annual meeting of the state divisions and national executive committee on the dates named will be for the purpose of elevating officers for the ensuing year and mapping out a program with reference to handling and marketing the cotton crop for 1908 and pressing forward the work of the association. It is expected that the coming convention at Dallas will be the largest and most important in the history of the association, and 5,000 delegates from the south will doubtless be present.

The Commercial Club at Dallas will give active co-operation toward making the convention a great success.

President Jordan will give out the official program for the convention in the near future.

FIRST LYINCHING OF NEW YEAR.

Negro Was Taken From the Officers in Mississippi.

Brookhaven, Miss., Jan. 4.—Probably the first lynching of 1908 occurred here when a mob in broad daylight took a negro away from police officers and shot him.

The negro, whose name was not known, either to the police or the mob, was accused of killing a policeman at Oakdale, on Tuesday night.

The negro had been arrested as a suspect because he came to Brookhaven looking for medical treatment for a gunshot wound in the abdomen.

The men got him away from the police by using a lasso, which was tossed over the negro's neck as the officers hurried him to jail. The lassoing of the black occurred near the central part of town, and owing to the quick gathering of crowds an effort to hang him was abandoned.

After the shooting a city official persuaded the mob not to drag the body through the streets, as its members proclaimed an intention of doing.

The mob is said to have been composed mostly of men from the vicinity of Oakvale.

After the lynching a negro who saw the body said it was that of Coot Autman, accused of killing a policeman in this vicinity Dec. 10.

SOON TO BEGIN SENTENCES.

Greene and Gaynor To Be Brought To Atlanta Prison.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 4.—The Savannah attorneys of Greene and Gaynor have been notified by District Attorney Marion Erwin that it is the purpose of the government to take the prisoners from Macon to the federal prison at Atlanta on January 7 to serve their term of four years for conspiracy with former Captain Oberlin M. Carter to defraud the government in connection with the river and harbor work of the Savannah district.

Under the mandate of the court, it was required that five days' notice be given attorneys for the prisoners before their removal to the penitentiary.

The notice was simply received as information. The attorneys will attempt no new step to prevent the carrying out of the sentence. Nothing more can be done.

Carelessness Nearly Cost a Life.

Athens, Ga., Jan. 4.—Miss Fannie Arthur, [illegible] city, came near losing her life by carelessness. She had been ill and was taking medicine prescribed by her physician. Her father gave her a dose of medicine out of a cup and as it happened this cup had been used for another purpose and had some carbolic acid left in the bottom. The small amount of carbolic acid that remained in the cup made Miss Arthur desperately ill and it required quick work to save

BLACK HAND DOOMED

Plans On Foot To Stamp Out All Such Organizations.

ALL MOVEMENTS HERALDED

Organization of Italian-Americans Will Appeal to Congress for More Stringent Immigration Laws Bearing Upon Sicily and South Italy.

New York, Jan. 4.—A plan, world-wide in its scope, to crush out the black hand, mafia and like organizations, has been devised by Lieutenant Joseph Petrosini, head of the Italian branch of the local detective bureau. Petrosini has established correspondence with heads of the police departments in Rome and other Italian cities and through them will learn whenever a brigand or blackmailer has left the country for America. He has established similar connections with the police of Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Denver, San Francisco and New Orleans and many smaller cities and in this manner the local police expect to keep track of the leaders of groups and cliques in this country.

Lieutenant Petrosinia is aiding in the organization of a national body of Italian-Americans, which proposes to appeal to congress to pass an immigration law to cause a more careful examination of immigrants from Sicily and South Italy.

"Many undesirable citizens, men known as brigands in Sicily and southern Italy are permitted to enter America," Lieutenant Petrosini said Thursday. "They should be kept out. When they reach America they are admired and made leaders by the uneducated of their kind, and soon are again at their old game of murder and blackmail. This can only be stamped out by driving as many of them as possible out, because the average Sicilian is afraid to tell of his persecutors."

YOUTH PAYS DEATH PENALTY.

Was So Light That His Neck Was Not Broken by the Fall.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 4.—Clarence Sturgeon has been executed. His extreme youth was the basis of many unavailing efforts to have him pardoned.

The execution was delayed and rendered extremely painful for those present by reason of a failure of the mechanism to work and a consequent delay of several minutes, while the condemned boy stood rigidly awaiting the end. Sturgeon was so light that he did not break his neck on the drop and was not pronounced dead for seventeen minutes.

Sturgeon murdered Ira Bruner, James Blackberby and Wilfred McMichael one year ago.

Sturgeon was only nineteen years old. He went to the scaffold with a calm and hypnotic trust which has shown in his boyish face ever since he has been in jail. Even the last interview with his aged father and mother and farewells to his seven brothers and two sisters failed to affect him.

Heroine of Mohegan to Wed.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 4.—The engagement of Miss Katherine Noble, the heroine of the Mohegan disaster, is announced. She will wed Ernesto Trovi-Simondetti, of Mexico. Miss Noble was a passenger on the steamer Mohegan when it sank in the English channel, October 16, 1896. She plaited a life belt around her and clung to a plank in the water for five hours before she was rescued. Sailors tried to take her into the life boats, but she refused, saying they were overcrowded and the addition of her weight would lessen the chances of those already in the boats. The sailors said she was the pluckiest girl they had ever seen. She was one of the eleven passengers saved out of nine-ty-seven.

Candidate Is Shot by Negro.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 4.—Chas. Gaines, candidate for mayor, was shot down on the street Friday by a negro on the eve of the municipal election.

J. MADISON TOOK HOME IN CHURCH

Removed Pulpit and Benches, and Took Up His Residence There.

PREACHER CAN'T GET THEM OUT

While Madison and His Wife Roast Their Feet On a Comfortable Stove, Enjoying Life, Preacher McCray is Using Every Effort to Oust Them.

A. B. Boney, a white man of Archer who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff R. L. Smith upon a charge of selling liquor in a county which had voted against the sale of same, was arraigned in the court of the county judge, but owing to lack of evidence to hold him, the defendant was discharged.

Another case coming before the court was a civil one, being the case of William McCray vs. J. Madison, the charge being unlawful detainer.

This case has assumed a rather amusing aspect. The defendant in the case, it seems, entered and took possession of a certain church building in the LaCrosse neighborhood, of which the plaintiff, Wm. McCray, is pastor. Madison "squatted," removed the pulpit and benches, and took his own furniture there, making the building his place of residence, where he and his wife have been living comfortably, despite the efforts of Rev. Wm. McCray and others to remove him. In plain words, he broke up that church, and the congregation has since had no place in which to worship, while Madison has been comfortably roasting his feet against a warm stove in his new place of abode.

Madison explained to the court that the property belonged to his mother, who sold the same to the people who erected the church, but that the property, which was mortgaged, had never been paid for. Consequently he decided to settle the matter by taking possession of same.

The second chapter of this story, which reads like a yellow-back romance, is that the defendant, Madison, notwithstanding the fact that he will be twenty-one years of age in April next, on the twenty-first day, is declared in his affidavit to be "an infant," and the petition presented to the court prayed that a guardian be appointed to take charge of the interests and property of this "infant," with a wife and child.

The papers appearing to be regular, George Mason was appointed guardian ad litem of the defendant, who was discharged, and the case is still in the hands of the court.

Carter & Layton represented the plaintiff in this case, while Judge Horatio Davis and Evans Haile appeared for the defendant.

The outcome of this case will be watched with considerable interest, as it is a very peculiar one. In the meantime, Mr. Mason will be the custodian of the "infant" defendant. The guardian, however, declares that he will have nothing to do with the wife and child in the case.

ENGINEER DUPREE IMPROVING.

Man So Badly Scalded at Bronson Recently is Rapidly Recovering.

Friends of Engineer Bob Dupree of the Seaboard Air Line, who was so badly scalded at Bronson a few days ago while trying to rescue his fireman from under a locomotive after a steam valve had given way, and who was brought to his home in this city, will be glad to learn that he is nearly well.

This incident is yet fresh on the minds of our readers, as it occurred only a short time ago. While the train was standing at Bronson the fireman went under the engine to fix a pipe, when a fuse suddenly blew out, scalding the unfortunate young fireman to death. In his effort to save the fireman, the engineer was himself frightfully scalded.

It was a fortunate thing that the injury was no worse to Engineer Dupree, although he has suffered a great deal.

Successful Fox Hunt.

Sheriff L. W. Fennell and J. L. Boulware have returned from Putnam county, where, in the vicinity of Putnam Hall, they were on a fox hunt with John and James Fennell of Melrose. The hunt was successful, the party having succeeded in capturing a fine specimen.

HERTEL A HARD LOSER.

Robbery Followed Misfortune, and He Is Out His Breeches and "Daugh."

W. H. Hertel, the popular manager of the pool room, was the victim of an experience, added to injury, which was no nightmare, but the real thing, Thursday night, with the result that he is a pair of trousers, about $15 in cash, and other things, short.

Mr. Hertel, who is quite a popular young man, had the misfortune to sprain his ankle Thursday night as he was crossing the street towards the pool room from the Brown House. The street at this point is filled with rubbish, lumber, etc., owing to the repairs going on about the place. His friends, however, realizing his misfortune, took him up stairs and to his room, placing him tenderly in bed, after he had been undressed, where he soon was embraced in the arms of slumber.

When Mr. Hertel was awakened by one of his friends who came to inquire after his condition Friday morning, he was in his usual good mood, although his ankle pained him a great deal. However, while he was talking to his friend he noticed that his trousers were gone, and so far he has been unable to regain them. The pockets contained his gold watch and chain, between $15 and $20 in money, a valuable pocket knife, keys, and other things.

Mr. Hertel don't know who would have been so kind as to misappropriate all his belongings, but feels that whoever is guilty should at least have left him his "breeches."

Chicago, Jan. 4.—A strike against rents of tenements is to take place in Chicago's Ghetto. The demand will be for a reduction of $2 a month. If this concession is not granted the Jewish tenements will refuse to pay rent and submit to eviction by their landlords.

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

Savannah Market Ruled Quiet During Past Week.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 4.—The market for Sea Island cotton was quiet, being largely under the influence of the holidays. Some little business was done meanwhile at previous quotations, and the tone was firm for fancy, and rather easy for the other grades.

The top grade is constantly becoming scarcer and more difficult to obtain, as the quality of the receipts shows no improvement. It is now thought that the total amount of fancy available from this crop will hardly exceed 10,000 bales. The ginners' report on next Friday is expected to practically settle the crop question, although the trade has already pretty well agreed on about 80,000 bales.

The following prices are based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

An Impressive Gift.

The presentation of a handsome floral bouquet for the casket of Mr. Edward H. Rainey, the funeral of whom was held Thursday morning, by Mrs. J. E. Futch, the silver wedding of whom occurred the night previous, was a tribute very thoughtful and highly appreciated by the family of the deceased, who are comparatively strangers here. The action of Mrs. Futch in making this presentation, which was the most beautiful of all the floral decorations of the Futch wedding, was very thoughtful and gracious upon the part of that lady.

CATARRH A SERIOUS FAR-REACHING BLOOD DISORDER

Even in its early stages Catarrh is almost intolerable, caused by the stuffy feeling in the nose, the buzzing noises in the ears, the continual "hawking and spitting" difficult breathing, etc. But when the blood becomes thoroughly polluted from the catarrhal matter, the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness, and often an aggravating cough; the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite and strength, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased and the system upset and deranged. Frequently the kidneys and bladder are attacked, and the constant passage of impure blood through the lungs, diseases these important members, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all the impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. S. S. S. has no equal as a cure for this disease. It refines and purifies the entire circulation and repairs the damage done by Catarrh. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

STATE TEACHERS WILL MEET HERE

Next Meeting of Educators Will be Held in Gainesville.

TEACHERS WERE WELL PLEASED

With the Session in St. Petersburg, Declaring That It Was One of the Most Instructive and Most Interesting Ever Held—Social Functions.

Gainesville, the "Convention City" as well as the University City, continues to hold her own.

Through the efforts and energy of Dr. Andrew Sledd, President of the University of Florida, Captain Geo. M. Lynch, Jasper Normal Institute, Prof. J. G. Kellum and Dr. P. W. Corr, who were very prominent and active at the meeting of the State Teachers' Association, just closed in St. Petersburg, it was voted to hold the next annual meeting of the teachers in Gainesville. The people of Gainesville are under obligations to these gentlemen for their successful influence in the matter, they having defeated an invitation from the good people of DeLand to meet with them next year.

Prof. J. G. Kellum, who has just returned from the meeting, reports a delightful time. He states that the good people of St. Petersburg extended every courtesy possible, arranging many social functions for the teachers, among which were banquets, receptions, excursions on the bay, etc. "St. Petersburg is a beautiful little city," said he, "and the people were so clever to us that we can never forget them. They left no stone unturned to give us the best time possible, and we had it."

Prof. Kellum, as a matter of course, is delighted that the meeting will be held here next year, as also the others who worked for Gainesville. Prof. Kellum states that those mentioned without favor, are entitled to the thanks of Gainesville for their loyalty for this city in this direction.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Dr. W. H. Russell of Starke, president; Miss Hattie Carpenter of Miami, vice-president; J. G. Kellum of Tallahassee, secretary; M. P. Geiger of Key West, treasurer. On the executive committee Prof. J. B. Lockey of Pensacola, Dr. Edwin Conradi of St. Petersburg, J. H. Workman of Ocala, and Miss Ida Farland of Jasper, were elected as new members. Prof. Asa B. Clark of Quincy, already a member of the committee, was selected as chairman.

Kinetic Energy

Kinetic is a good word. It means "power to make things go." A fat bank account, a rock on the edge of a hill, a barrel of gunpowder, and SCOTT'S EMULSION all contain "kinetic energy," so the professor tells us.

Power is stored up in

Scott's Emulsion

This force let loose in the system of the consumptive gives him the strength to take on new flesh. It is a powerful flesh-producer.

MELON GROWERS' MEETING.

Interesting Meeting Held Saturday, at Which Officers Were Elected.

The annual meeting of the Gainesville Melon Growers' Association was held Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended.

The following officers were elected at this meeting:

Chas. A. Colclough, president; J. D. Stringfellow, vice-president; F. D. Warner, secretary and treasurer. These officers were all re-elected, having served faithfully and efficiently during the past year.

A great deal of interest was manifested in this meeting, at which the general condition of affairs which affected the truckers and melon growers was discussed. It was ascertained, by comparison, that about six hundred acres would be planted the coming season, against an acreage of about seven hundred last year.

THE BOARD OF CONTROL.

Regular Meeting Will be Held in This City Some Time During Monday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Control will be held at the Brown House some time during Monday. Secretary Kellum is already here, and members of the board are expected today and tomorrow.

This will be a regular meeting of the board, and nothing of unusual interest is anticipated at this meeting, the regular routine being the only thing on the program.

Will Start New Resort.

Gainesville is to have a new resort, it is said, in the nature of a bowling alley, pool and billiard room.

It has been announced about the streets that John L. Chesser, a young man well known in and about the city, will soon start a first-class bowling alley and pool and billiard hall in the store recently vacated by the A. R. Harper Piano Company. This will prove an admirable place for such a resort, and the venture will no doubt prove an enjoyable and popular attraction for the sporting element of the city.

New Grocery Store.

Feeling that the increased prosperity of that section demanded it, Roth & Webster have decided to open a grocery store in North Gainesville at an early date. The store will be under the management of H. C. Roth, who will see that the place is an up-to-date and modern establishment of the kind in every way.

North Gainesville, like the rest of this section, is growing, and there appears to be room for new enterprises on every hand.

Card of Thanks.

Miss Lovie Goode, who was elected Queen of the Carnival by a handsome majority, and who was presented with a handsome gold watch, desires through The Sun to express her sincere thanks and appreciation to all her friends, and especially to Capt. H. E. Benson, who were so active and successful in her behalf.

The watch is a very handsome one, and Miss Goode naturally feels very proud of the same.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured.

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

"AS YOUR FELLOWS SEE IT"

If you judge a man by the clothes he wears—as nine out of ten men unconsciously do—what then about jewelry? Isn't a man who wears cheap jewelry as surely "labeled cheap" as if the word were written on his shirt front in letters of crimson? The touch of refinement that is given by good jewelry—a gold watch, a ring, a pin or a diamond—is unmistakable and it is the reason why good jewelry only should be worn. We keep only the good kind and you will find our prices of a modest profit kind. DIAMOND RINGS from $10 up.

DEATH OF ROBT. PATTERSON.

Well-Known Young Man Passed Away at Home of His Parents Friday.

Friends of Robert Patterson regretted very much Saturday to learn of his death, which occurred at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson, North Gainesville, about 9 o'clock Friday night.

Deceased was thirty-three years of age, and a native of Ohio. He came here with his parents some time ago, and made many friends. He had been in ill health for some time, and, while not unexpected, his death came as a blow to all who knew him.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 1 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. T. J. Nixon officiating. The remains will be shipped to the former home of the deceased, Greenfield, Ohio, accompanied by the father.

Deceased is survived by his parents, who reside here, and a loving wife and little son in Greenfield, to whom the sympathy of friends is extended.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Safe Medicine for Children.

In buying a cough medicine for children, never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croup cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

Land Office Improvements.

The improvements at the United States land office, which have been under way for the past few weeks, are about completed. Among the most important of these is a cement floor in the rear office, which will prove of great advantage.

Register Chubb and Receiver Warren, who make their offices in this section of the building, expect to occupy these quarters the first of the coming week.

Why

Should your baby suffer? When he is fretful and restless, don't experiment on him and use any old thing your neighbor recommends. Buy a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, greatest known worm medicine and cure for children's diseases. It is mild in its action, builds up the system, makes thin, puny babies fat. Mrs. J. C. Smith, Tampa, Fla., writes: "My baby was thin and sickly, could not retain its food and cried all night. I used one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and in a few days baby was laughing, happy and well." Sold by W. W. Johnson.

A CRITICISM OF SENATOR BRYAN.

The Ocala Banner gives the following criticism of Senator W. J. Bryan:

"Mr. William James Bryan, recently appointed United States Senator from Florida by Governor Broward to fill the unexpired term of Senator Mallory, deceased, has given out a most remarkable statement for publication. This statement has been printed in many of the newspapers of the country, and as we have seen no contradiction or denial of its genuineness, the presumption is that it is authentic.

"Among other things the young gentleman makes the following rather rash prediction:

"'I am going to make the people of my State the best Senator any State ever had.'

"We devoutly and sincerely hope that the young man's prophesy of himself may come true, yet it seems to us that it is a very rash statement for a young man to make, and we are extremely sorry that he was fresh enough to do so.

"So far as we are aware Mr. Bryan has done nothing to foreshadow so much greatness.

"He has made no great speech on any of the grave and vexing questions of State or national import, so far as we know, outside of his own community, and if he has made any there they have not been printed, or if printed, did not attract very general notice.

"So far as we are aware he has made no striking nor profound contributions to any of the newspapers, magazines, or other periodicals of the country, offering a solution for any of the absorbing problems that have confronted us for the past decade.

"He was at the head of Broward's campaign committee, and distributed Straub's cartoons—about 80,000 of them.

"We are told that Mr. Bryan 'busted' an ice trust in Jacksonville.

"Mr. Ed Davis did that in Ocala, but it was not regarded such an overwhelming performance as to cover his brow with a halo of glory.

"Indeed, so many things of this sort are done by the members of the Ocala bar that they attract very little attention, and are looked upon as a matter of course.

"Prophesying that he is going to 'make the best Senator any State ever had,' it seems to us that Mr. Bryan is assuming a very huge contract, for some of the States have had Senators whose greatness has been reflected in nearly every page of the nation's history—men who are remarkable for their erudition, oratory, magnetism and patriotism.

"Massachusetts had Daniel Webster, Charles Sumner, Henry Wilson, Rockwell Hoar and others whom the 'Old Bay State' holds in precious memory.

"South Carolina had Calhoun, Hayne and Hampton, and a long list of others who shed effulgent and imperishable glory on the proud 'Palmetto State.'

Kentucky had Clay and Breckinridge, and Crittendon and Carlisle, whose fame rests eternal with that of the nation.

"Clay was a younger man when he received the appointment to fill out an unexpired term in the Senate of the United States, but he had already won a national reputation by the part he played as a member of the Legislature and a member of the constitutional convention of his State, where he boldly advocated the abolition of slavery.

"All the States have made valuable contributions to the Senate of the United States.

"There were Jackson, Johnson, Harris and Carmack, from Tennessee; Davis and Foote, from Mississippi; Benjamin and Eustis, from Louisiana; Houston, from Texas; Yancey, Morgan and Pettus, from Alabama; McDuffie, Toombs, Gordon and Hill, from Georgia; Cass, Benton, Hendricks, Voorhees and Vest, from Missouri; Sherman and Thurman, from Ohio; Doolittle from Wisconsin; DeWitt, Clinton, Filmore and Conkling from New York; Bayard, from Delaware; Edmunds, from Vermont; Blaine, from Maine; Ingalls, from Kansas; Yulee, Mallory (father and son) and Jones and Call, from Florida, and a long list of others whose debates attracted momentous attention and fill volumes.

"And the Senate of the United States today will measure strength with any legislative body in the world, so it may be seen at a glance what a tremendous contract our youthful Senator has undertaken to perform.

"Not only has young Mr. Bryan assumed the contract to 'make the best Senator any State ever had,' but he has assumed to make it his 'life work,' as if there are to be no more primary elections in Florida and the appointment of Governor Broward is to keep him in office forever!

"'Some day,' he says, 'I shall be the oldest Senator.' The young man just seems to take it for granted that he is to homestead the office and become a permanent fixture in the upper branch of Congress."

A SPLENDID SHOWING.

At last Atlanta and Georgia are offered a fairly concrete instance of the tremendous moral and money value of the deterrent treatment of juvenile criminals, says The Atlanta Constitution. It is contained in the annual report of Probation Officer Gloer, whose duties include the exercise of supervision and moral suasion over the embryo criminals committed to his care from the police court.

The portion of the report to which we wish to call particular attention was summarized recently in The Constitution as follows:

> The total number of arrests of juveniles for the year was 1,320. Of these, 143 were put on probation; 325 were fined. During the year 138 were dismissed from probation, and these boys and girls who were reformed would probably have gone to the stockade or the chaingang but for the probation officer's good work.

Startling and significant figures—143 youthful criminals placed on probation; 138 of that number dismissed during the year. Only five of the total number placed on probation who failed to respond to the reformative influences of moral suasion.

Who may estimate the total, in dollars and cents, saved to the State from the rescuing of these 138 potential law-breakers? It is simply incalculable.

Assume, on the other hand, that they had been thrust into the chaingang or the stockade. Either one is a veritable training-school for crime and moral depravity, its faculty hardened offenders, its daily curriculum lessons in vice and contempt of law and its penalties. Is there any question that at least 99 per cent of these 138 children would have emerged from either process confirmed enemies of and parasites upon society, pitiful spawn to evolve later into chronic jail-birds?

Let the good people of Atlanta and Georgia ponder well these facts, with a view toward putting their lessons into widespread application.

Now the Chicago Widows' Club announces with much indignation, according to a dispatch from the Windy City, that it has been shocked by a request from a New York man that it supply him with a wife. By the way, seems as if that Widow's Club's press agents must be working overtime of late.

A Milwaukee jeweler, who carried burglar insurance only on his safe, wonders why the cracksmen failed to make a good job of his place. The store was "cleaned out," the safe refused to be opened and now the jeweler cannot collect on his policy!

Chicago reports the capture of a humorous bunco-steerer who sold a privilege of fishing in Lake Michigan for $20. Must have been the same man who sold the Brooklyn Bridge to a prosperous foreigner for $1,200.

Two newspapers demonstrated last Sunday how stock cuts may be utilized. A woman kneeling before a sarcophagus portrayed "Sorrow;" the other sheet used the picture to show the sculptor's art in dress folds!

It is recorded in the news columns that a two-hundred-and-fifty-pound woman "seized a burglar and sat on him until her husband came to her assistance." Probably a misprint—should have read "to his assistance."

Elinor Glyn's "Three Weeks" in America seem to have been much more profitable than the Imperatorskaye's same time on the continent—for advertising doubtless pays better than even a royal heir.

Ten per cent more store-patronage in this city is now influenced by newspaper advertising than was true a year ago. This means an increase of ten per cent in the "shopping wisdom" of the people.

Would suggest that the Canadian commission that has been on a hunt for a "beef trust" in the dominion, and reports that it can't find any, might have better luck if it came over the line.

It now develops that eagles' nests are not only hard to capture but are costly. A Minnesota aerie of fraternal birds has just been attached for $7,000.

Target-practice records of the navy do not seem to show that the battleship's low freeboard affects straight shooting.

The "best" ad. in the paper may not always be the biggest one—but in about nine cases out of ten it is.

The bond election which was to have been held in St. Petersburg on the 31st ult., was deferred until the 4th of February.

Gen. Albert W. Gilchrist, candidate for Governor, has had some very artistic postcards printed in the interest of his candidacy.

Rev. W. H. Carter, D. D., rector of St. Johns parish, Tallahassee, since 1880, died at the rectory in the State capital early Sunday morning, aged 78 years.

Officials of the Atlantic Coast Line in Jacksonville state that every available apartment on the New York and Florida Special, which leaves New York Monday on its initial trip, has been engaged since last Friday.

The bucket shops of Pensacola have felt the effects of the closing of such places in Alabama. Business from nearby Alabama cities and towns came to Pensacola which almost doubled the business heretofore done in that city.

Information has been received from Otter Creek that the large saw and planing mill of the Otter Creek Lumber Company has closed down for an indefinite period. It is one of the largest plants in that section, and has given employment to many hands.

Judge John S. Maxwell is determined to break up the pistol-toting habit in Duval county, and persons convicted in the criminal court of carrying concealed weapons may expect to contribute $100 each to the county funds or spend three months in the convict camps.

The Kentucky Military Institute from Bashaws, Ky., are en route to Eau Gallie, the school's winter home on the picturesque banks of the Indian river. There are several hundred cadets and a half-dozen teachers in the party. They are traveling in a private train.

William H. Bingham of Tampa, the popular clerk of Lewallen & Company's store, will receive $160,000 in cash from the estate of an uncle who recently died at Belfast, Ireland. He has already donated $1,000 to the clerks' union in Tampa and the rest will be invested in Tampa real estate.

The Martha Reid Chapter, U. D. C., of Jacksonville, has decided to offer an annual prize of $1 in gold to the pupils of the first five grades in the public schools of Duval county who shall the best draw a Confederate flag in colored crayon. The prize-winners will be announced each year at the Confederate ball.

The grand jury of Hillsboro county, which was called together by Judge J. B. Wall to investigate the killing of the negro, Charles Strong, by Deputy Sheriff W. C. Deas on Christmas day, had the case under consideration all of Monday and until 11 o'clock Tuesday, when a presentment was brought into court, indicting Deas for murder in the first degree.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

Melrose, Jan. 4.—The old year was brought to a very pleasant close by a delightful al fresco luncheon given by Baroness von Luttichau and Mrs. S. B. Drew, in honor of their guest, Miss Jean Harwell of Jacksonville.

A large party from Melrose were carried over by Mr. Hamlyn in his motor launch, and found a number of other guests already assembled to receive them. After an enjoyable half hour, passed by inspecting the many curious and rare trees and shrubs in the grounds, among which the Japanese paper plants and camellias in full bloom were much admired, the call to lunch was sounded and all sat down to a most bountiful repast, spread under the famous oak tree overlooking the shores of Lake Santa Fe. Later on the guests were pleasantly entertained by the singing of a colored quartette, followed by a little impromptu dance. All agreed that it was a most enjoyable occasion.

Geo. Birt of New York City, a former resident here, was in town for a few days, visiting his brother, T. A. Birt. His many friends were pleased to see him looking so well.

Miss Mary Mosely has returned to her brother's house on Bellamy road.

Mrs. W. Roberts and children of Tampa, and Mrs. M. Lecove of Palatka, are visiting in town.

The many friends of Miss Lena Jackson will be pleased to learn that the operation was entirely successful, and she hopes to return to Melrose sometime next week.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Literary and Debating Society, Mrs. J. B. Curtis read an interesting paper on Longfellow.

Among those who entertained friends during the week were Dr. and Mrs. Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hamlyn, Mr. and Mrs. H. von Noszky and Mrs. A. O. Treadwell.

Liquor Records Open to Public.

Washington, Jan. 4.—From reports in several Georgia papers there seems to exist some uncertainty as to the availibility for the use of local police officials of data in the office of the collector of internal revenue in Atlanta. All persons paying the federal tax for the manufacture or sale of liquor in the district are on record in Collector Rucker's office, and the books containing these records are open to the public. Any police official, tax official or other citizen is permitted free access to them. Such aid as they will give in running down illicit dealers may be had for the asking.

Dropped Dead in Street.

Talladega, Ala., Jan. 4.—R. L. Schussler, one of the wealthiest and best known citizens of this section of the state, dropped dead suddenly in Ashland, Ala., Thursday. He had just eaten heartily of oysters an complained of pains in his left side. When he started down the street he staggered and died without saying a word. He owned several mercantile establishments in this section and a bank in Kentucky.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Florida Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Florida readers.

A. Oerting, seaman, of 419 L. street, Pensacola, Fla., tells how to do it. He says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can strongly recommend them to anyone in need of a good medicine for the kidneys. Kidney complaint and backache caused me suffering at intervals for years. The first or second attack I did not mind, but as time went by they grew worse and at times laid me up. I could hardly walk and it was a difficult matter to straighten up after stooping, while the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. From personal experience I know that this remedy can be depended upon to fulfill the representations made for it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is a safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or Whitish discharges, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors or Growths; also pains in the head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you should wish to continue, it will cost you only about 12 cents a week, or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER" with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all, old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Sickness and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Plumpness and health always results from its use.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address

COLORED EPISCOPAL SCHOOL.

Rev. Speight and His Assistants Have Done Good Work During Past Year.

The school of St. Augustine's Episcopal Mission in this city closed the first term of its school year with the Christmas holidays.

This has been one of the most important and successful sessions the school has ever enjoyed.

With the careful and judicial management of Rev. J. Speight, the principal, and the good, effective work of his assistant teachers, the school has well sustained the past reputation it has justly merited by accomplishing good work, and has surpassed all previous records, with an enrollment of one hundred and eighty pupils during the term, among whom are children who come from the rural districts, and are boarding in the city to get the benefit of the school.

In addition to the proper instruction in the school text-book, the children are receiving wholesome moral and Christian training.

At the services on Sunday before Christmas, the children made a creditable advent offering for diocesan missions, and during the holidays the school gave a pleasant entertainment, Christmas tree and cantata at Johnson's hall, where they rendered a program which reflected much credit upon themselves and their teachers.

The school will open to begin work Monday.

CONFESSED TO FALSE ENTRIES.

Storr's Confession is Complete—$1,000,000 False Assets On Books.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 4.—Another sensational chapter was added to the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company scandal when H. L. Storrs, one of the bookkeepers of the concern, broke down under a merciless cross-examination and confessed that the false entries in the books were in his handwriting and had been made under orders from J. Dalzell Brown, the imprisoned manager of the bank, and J. D. Robertson, the fugitive assistant secretary.

The confession made by Storrs was complete in every respect and established the fact that nearly $1,000,000 had been falsely added to the assets of the bank in order to deceive the state commissioners.

Shipwrecked Sailors Reach Port.

New York, Jan. 4—Seven shipwrecked sailors, believed to be the only survivors of the crew of the sixteen of the Norwegian bark Germanic, were brought here Friday by the oil tank steamer Holman Newton. They were picked up in mid-ocean on December 17 in a terrible condition from exposure, eight days after their vessel had been abandoned. Another boat which contained eight men has not been found. The captain of the bark who remained on board until all the men found places in the small boats, went down with his ship.

To Dissolve Receivership.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 4.—A plan was made public here Friday whereby the receivership for the Westinghouse Machine Company may be dissolved and the business of the company restored to the stockholders. There seems no question of a doubt but that the plan will be successful.

STATE ANSWERS SUITS.

Railroads Hold That New Legislation is Only a Development.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 4.—In answers made in the federal court the state sets up that neither the railroad commissioner nor the attorney general has any right to enforce state railroad acts, hence cannot be made parties to the suits brought to enjoin these acts by the railroads.

The state, therefore, takes the position that the old laws are repealed and the suits brought on them abated and the attempt of the railroads to supplement these suits is, as a consequence, without support. If the court should hold with this position, the suits of the railroads would be without standing.

The answer was made by Attorney General Garber and the other state counsel. The paper also answers for the sheriffs and solicitors, who have also been restrained. The position of the railroad is that the new legislation is simply a development of that which has been restrained and can be met by supplemental bills.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A SENSATION WAS CREATED.

Mayor Refused to Advertise Prohibition Was in Effect.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 4.—A sensation was created in Girard, Columbus' Alabama neighbor, when the mayor of that city upon being notified by Mayor Browne, of Columbus, that prohibition now exists in this city, declined to advertise the fact.

The Alabama law which provides prohibition for Girard becomes operative when Columbus goes dry, when the mayor of Columbus certifies to that fact and when the Girard mayor publishes the fact five days. The chain is complete up to the last link but up to this hour the Girard mayor has failed to insert the advertisement.

Mayor Browne furnished him a certificate and in his reply to the letter Mayor Foster says:

"The paper furnished me by you lays upon me no duty to take any action whatever."

A profound sensation was created among prohibitionists of both cities by the Girard mayor's answer. The supposed defect in Mayor Browne's certificate has not yet been explained. Mayor Foster has left for Seale, Ala., to seek legal advice.

Probate Judge Benton, of Russell county, Alabama, states that attorneys are preparing mandamus proceedings to compel him to issue liquor licenses for Girard.

REPORT OF INSPECTOR.

Gives Full Details of Yolande Mine Explosion.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 4.—State Mine Inspectors J. M. Gray, James Millhouse and Edward Fynn have filed with Governor Comer a full report on the explosion which took place in the Yolande mines last month, in which fifty-six men lost their lives and thirty succeeded in getting out alive.

After describing the mines Chief Inspector Gray says that he is of the opinion that a miner allowed some dynamite to go off, which ignited dust and after damp and explosion together killed the men.

Certain rules and orders were given to the company operating the mines as to future regulations, among which is the stipulation that the supply of explosives carried into the mines by the miners must be closely watched, and that there must be regular cleaning out of dust throughout the mines.

125,126 BIRTHS IN NEW YORK.

Statistics Show An Increase of 13,354 Births Over Last Year.

New York, Jan. 4.—The stork made 125,126 visits in New York city during 1907, according to statistics prepared by the commissioner of health. This is an increase of 13,354 over the previous year when 111,772 births were reported. The new figures give New York a higher birth rate than London and a lead of more than 40 per cent over Paris.

During the year there were 79,205 deaths, giving a death rate of 18.48 per thousand. In 1906 there were 76,203 deaths. There was a material decrease in the deaths of children under five years old, and an increase of 1,680 in the number that died from heart disease, the total being 7,726. During 1907 there were 51,097 marriages as compared with 48,355 in 1906.

RENT STRIKE PREDICTED.

Plans Made for Monster Parade of Rent Strikers.

New York, Jan. 3.—The crisis in the rent strike is predicted when the collectors begin their monthly rounds. More than 6,000 families have signed the demand for lower rent and when the collectors attempt to collect the usual rent, these families will refuse to pay more than eighty per cent of the amount demanded.

A large number of buildings are said to be well organized and the members are busy trying to induce others to join the strike. Plans are being made to hold a monster parade of the rent strikers through the east side streets to help extend the strike to the entire tenement district.

AGREED TO GIVE UP WIFE NO. 2.

Wife No. 1 Then Agreed to Withdraw the Warrant

Huntsville, Ala., Jan. 4.—Otto Stafford, who was arrested on Christmas Day on a charge of bigamy, was released Tuesday only to be rearranged on the same charge.

After being placed in jail, Stafford sent for his wife No. 1 who had taken out the warrant against him and agreed to give up his second wife on condition that the charge be withdrawn. The woman agreed to this, but as the offense is a felony, Solicitor Pride procured another warrant and Stafford is still in jail.

DIDN'T FEAR BULLETS

A Sheriff Who Was as Brave as He Was Tender Hearted.

HOW HE COLLECTED A DEBT.

The Man Who Owed the Money Was Well Able to Pay, and the Grim, Determined Old Sheriff Made Him Realize That It Was Time to Pay.

There is a spot in the memory of Greene county, Pa., sacred to Jim Cosgray, one time sheriff, whose heart was as tender as his courage was stout. As he came down the steps of the courthouse one day in Waynesburg a white haired old man near at hand who had been waiting for him fired at him three times from a revolver. Cosgray quickly walked over to him, took his gun away and said:

"Now, look here, daddy, if you do that again I'll prosecute you."

It had fallen to Cosgray in the line of duty to serve an execution on the old man, who, worried by financial difficulties, had got lopsided mentally and conceived the idea that Cosgray was personally responsible for his troubles. The late Judge A. E. Wilson of Uniontown was at that time holding court in Waynesburg and had witnessed the shooting from the window of his hotel. Many others had seen it too.

"Now," remarked the judge to his stenographer, L. L. Minor, at his side, "when that shooting comes up for investigation in court we'll learn how many different stories the witnesses will tell about it."

The judge knew from long experience how many viewpoints there are to such episodes, but this case never came up to trial.

In 1876 a Greene county man who had become bankrupt—at least to the extent of inability or unwillingness to pay his debts in Greene county—went to Philadelphia, where he secured a valuable concession in connection with the Centennial exposition. Reports were brought back to Waynesburg during the summer by visitors that he was making barrels of money. Cosgray listened with much interest, but without comment, to all these stories, because this man had left Greene county owing him $5,000. Finally Cosgray one day packed his grip and left town. Next day he turned up in Philadelphia at the hotel where his prosperous debtor was stopping and was shown by request to the latter's room. His reception was noisily hilarious.

"Why, hello, Jim! Glad to see you, old boy. What in the world brings you to the city?" He shook Jim's hand with every external appearance of great joy. But the sentiment was all one way.

"I come to git that $5,000 ye owe me." Jim's eyes reflected no feelings of esteem. He was simply out for his stuff.

"Sorry, Jim, very sorry, indeed I am, but I haven't got it and therefore can't pay ye. I would if I could."

"Well, I rather guess ye'll have to git it somehow or other. I came here from Waynesburg especially fer what ye owe me, and I'm not goin' back without it."

Cosgray got up, walked to the door, locked it and put the key in his pocket. Then he said:

"It's just this way, my friend. Waynesburg people have been coming home from Philadelphia all summer telling how much money you've been makin' here, and I think they've been tellin' the truth, for I've been very careful in my inquiries about you. Now, I want that money."

Here he took a revolver from his pocket and ominously tapped on the table with the muzzle.

"I'm an old man, with but a few more years to live, and I'm not a bit particklar whether I live 'em at all or not. That $5,000 'll make 'em pass a sight easier. I don't intend to live without the money, and I don't intend you shall live with it."

The man knew Cosgray meant every word he said. He fenced and fumed, threatened and sputtered, but there sat the silent, grim old ex-sheriff, gun in hand, ready to touch it off any instant. His determination never wavered. He was a man of few words, and the outcome was exactly as he had resolved it should be. The man went to a corner of his room, opened a satchel and counted out $5,000 to Cosgray. The sheriff returned to Waynesburg and put it in the bank, and no one ever knew how he came by it until the victim himself finally disburdened his heart of its weight of woe.—Uniontown Cor. Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

It Takes Cash.

"Why are there no lynchings in this city?" said a New York policeman. "Because the officers always get there ahead of a rope. There are several patrolmen on each block, and it takes some time to hunt up a hardware store and get a rope. The man who goes after it usually loses his enthusiasm when he finds that even a clothesline means cash on delivery."

OLD TIN CANS.

The Way They Finally Disappear From Human Sight.

Few people realize what becomes of all the old tin cans, tin pans, kettles, buckets, coal hods and the like. They finally disappear from human sight and knowledge and are seen no more. Science shows that they evaporate. When a tin can is cast away and forsaken it begins its downward course by becoming rusty. The tin oxidizes or, in other words, unites with the oxygen surrounding it in the atmosphere, and the oxide of tin gradually takes leave of the iron by evaporating into the air, while some of it is washed away by the rain into the earth. After the tin is gone the iron of the can follows the same course that has been pursued by the tin. It oxidizes and becomes the familiar reddish brown substance known as iron rust. The metals have no wills of their own, no affinities, no understandings, and therefore no intentions as to their present or future course. They do nothing of themselves. But electrical forces do their work for them. These forces unite the atoms of the metals with those of the oxygen. Then the molecules of these oxides are carried away by the atmospheric electricity and disposed of according to circumstances.

If a small bottle or other piece of glass be placed on damp ground and an old wornout tin bucket is turned over it, the particles of iron oxide will be taken away by electric currents from the old bucket and will be deposited partly on the glass, the remainder going into the air and the earth. Deposits of iron and other metals are thus carried around by electricity in the atmosphere from place to place all over the earth. Chlorine by electric power picks up atoms of gold and goes with them to the ocean, where they are as much at home as salt. All metals can exist in a state of vapor; therefore they are to be found not only in the atmosphere around this earth, but also in the atmosphere around the sun and the stars. If a ray of sunlight is bent out of its course, as it is by drops of water in the case of the rainbow, the familiar seven colors of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet are spread out side by side. When these spectra or streaks of light are scientifically investigated about 500 dark lines are formed also among the colors, and these lines represent shadows cast by elemental substances in the atmospheres of the earth and the sun. Light made artificially and not passing through the atmosphere of the earth and the sun does not have these dark lines.

By means of the spectroscope, a gradually invented instrument now in use, but credited to several scientists, well known elements have been compelled to register their addresses in bands of light. Among the first to write themselves down were sodium, potassium, magnesium, calcium, chromium, nickel and iron. And the same apparatus led to the discovery of new metals, such as cesium, rubidium and thallium. All these are found to be in the sun's atmosphere. By means of the spectroscope the one hundred millionth part of a grain of sodium in common salt becomes as discernible and unmistakable as the side of a house. This wonderful modern instrument has enabled scientists to find out what the people who inhabit the planets in the solar system of the dog star Sirius, for example, have to eat, for without nitrogen they could have no beans or spring peas, without sulphur no mustard, horseradish and water cresses or anything of the kind, although the people would be confined to vegetable diet. They would also be without light biscuit for breakfast or any fermented liquors.—Baltimore American.

What He Felt Like.

It was the first time he had sung in an Episcopal choir, and he felt strangely out of place in the vestments he wore. The other choristers looked comfortable enough, but the new one was sure he would trip on the skirts of his cassock when he went up the chancel steps, and he knew that if he did not stop perspiring his clean linen cotta would be sadly mussed. The opening prayer had been intoned by the rector, and the singers were in line waiting for the introduction to the processional to be played, when one of the basses whispered in the new man's ear:

"You're a tenor, aren't you?"

"I suppose so," he replied, "but I feel like a twospot."—New York Times.

Picturesque Newfoundland.

Newfoundland has been styled a rough stone with no interior, and doubtless to the passenger on some Atlantic liner, seeing its bold headland jutting out into the ocean, with its weather beaten cliffs standing gray and cold, the description may seem a fitting one. But to those who know it well, who have seen the fir clad valleys, its clear lakes and streams, and hillsides tinged with the red and gold of autumn, it is a rough stone with a very fair interior.—London Strand.

Grieving for the lost opportunity is the very worst way to find new ones.—Baltimore American.

BLOOD PRESSURE.

The Determination of Its Relation to Mental States.

In addition to those bodily movements which are called "voluntary" various bodily phenomena which are clearly involuntary accompany violent mental excitement. The blush of shame, the distinctive flushes of joy and of anger, the pallor and sweat of fear, the tears of grief and the "creeping" of the flesh provoked by horror are familiar examples. The respiration is quickened by joy and retarded by anxiety, and the feeling of relief finds expression in a deep sigh. Violent emotions often disturb the digestion. The heart "bounds with joy," is paralyzed by horror, "leaps to the throat" in terror. The connection between the heart and the emotions is so intimate that the heart was long regarded as the seat of the soul.

Most of these involuntary physical concomitants of mental excitement are brought about by a special part of the nervous system, the sympathetic nerve and its branches, which ramify to every part of the body. The best known branches are those that govern the dilatation of the blood vessels, which are profoundly affected by mental states. These phenomena are susceptible of exact quantitative determination by means of a method devised by the Italian physiologist Mosso. The result is fairly accurate measurement of the variation of blood supply in the brain. The subject is laid on a board which is balanced on a fulcrum at the center of gravity. When the subject is quiet and undisturbed the board lies horizontal. Now, if an unpleasant sensation or emotion is induced in the subject his head is involuntarily elevated, indicating diminution in the quantity of blood in the brain. An agreeable sensation of emotion produces the opposite effect.—Scientific American.

Victoria and Lady Millais.

It is related that when Sir John Millais fell ill Queen Victoria sent the Princess Louise to the dying man to inquire what favor she could accord him that could alleviate his sorrow if not his pain. Sir John thereupon called for his writing tablet and inscribed upon it the words, "I should like the queen to see my wife." Then the queen broke through her iron rule not to receive any woman whose marriage tie had been once dissolved, whether there be blame or not, graciously acceded to the request and accorded the sorely tried lady a tender and sympathetic interview.—St. James' Gazette.

True.

"It isn't true, is it," asked Rollo as he finished reading "The Pied Piper of Hamelin"—"it isn't true that he could play on his pipe so that the rats would go off and drown themselves?"

"Well," replied Rollo's father, "I don't know about that. I think it may be true. Your Uncle George can play the flute so that it will scare a cow into a river and drive all the dogs in the neighborhood crazy. Yes, I should say the poem is true."—London Answers.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

Old newspapers for sale at The Sun office.

Miss Ross of Cedar Key spent yesterday in Gainesville with friends.

If you have found anything see if it is advertised in the want column.

J. S. Neal of McIntosh was a business visitor to Gainesville yesterday.

R. S. Bradley and son, William, were in the city from Wacahoota yesterday.

C. M. Holden, a farmer and trucker of Kanapaha, was trading in the city yesterday.

J. B. Douglass of Jacksonville is spending a few days with his family in this city.

Keep your eye on the "Wants" column. It may contain just what you are looking for.

A real sale at your own price. See if we don't mean it. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Editor Oliver J. Farmer of Bronson was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business.

When in need of a pair of good work shoes that will wear, don't fail to see our line. L. C. Smith.

If it has been a fortnight since you published or answered a want ad., you have been "losing interest in things."

F. S. Curl of Archer was in the city yesterday. He was en route home from Jacksonville, where he has been on business.

Dr. W. F. Yocum has returned from Eagle Lake, where he has been looking after his interests. He has a very fine grove at that point.

Master Howe and little Misses Bessie and Agnes McCormick have returned from Lawtey, after a pleasant visit to relatives in that town.

The first real sale ever offered in Gainesville will be at our store commencing Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Division Superintendent McArthur of the Atlantic Coast Line has returned from points in South Florida, where he has been on an official visit.

Yes, anything we have in our store goes at customer's price after telling you the cost. Give us a trial and tell your friends. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

We mean what we say, and say what we mean, when we say we will sell at customer's price, not our's. Seeing is believing—come and see. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Mrs. E. J. Bowyer and A. R. Huyer of Tampa, who have been here for the past few days on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. N. LaFontisee and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McCollum, have returned to their home.

Misses Eleanor Crum and Ollie Weston, two charming little Misses of Ocala who have been here for the past few days on a visit to the family of Col. and Mrs. W. W. Hampton, returned to their home yesterday.

Tuesday, January 7th, from 3 to 6 p. m., there will be a gramophone concert at the Victor Talking Machine office, Miss Norton's store. St Elizabeth's Guild of Holy Trinity church will serve hot chocolate, tea and sandwiches.

To follow the progress a nation makes,
You naturally notice the steps it takes.
You can wager your money and never loose
On a nation that travels in Stetson Shoes. HYDE & TENCH.

W. A. Strickland, one of the leading farmers of the county, was in the city from Paradise yesterday.

Arthur Warden of Tioga, who is connected with the Cummer Lumber Company, was in the city yesterday.

J. J. Haymans, the naval stores operator of Lochloosa, is here for the next two or three days on a visit to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. King of Orange Heights favored this city with a visit yesterday. Mr. King is one of the leading citizens of the East End.

What's the use in worrying about hard times when you can get the best shoes on the market from us at such remarkably low prices? L. C. Smith.

We will tell you later how long our real sale will last. Watch the ads. in the paper. Don't stay at home, for it will not last always. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

G. T. Kennard, formerly of this city but now of Newberry, where he is engaged in the livery business, was transacting business here yesterday, accompanded by his wife.

It will pay you and pay us to buy at a real sale. We have too much stock for the dull times, and we are willing to sell more for less profit. Try us. Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store.

Misses Maude Lewis and Allie Taylor left yesterday for Cherry Sink, where tomorrow they will open the Cherry Sink school. Miss Lewis will be the principal, assisted by Miss Taylor.

Chas. Ellis can do first-class altering, dyeing, cleaning and pressing. Also, ladies' skirts cleaned and pressed from 75 cents to $1.50. Nothing but first-class work turned out. Give him your order. Located in Opera House block.

Miss Christine Richards has returned from Ocala, where she had a delightful visit. She was accompanied home by Miss Louise Harris, daughter of Hon. Frank Harris, editor of The Ocala Banner, who will be her guest for a few days.
